Whitehall, September 25. The following Addreſs from the Town of Seaford was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Lowndes Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliff, Jurats and Freemen, of the Port and ancient Borough of Seaford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT being viſible that from the time of Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of Your Anceſtors, the Regal Power hath been adminiſtred with the greateſt Wiſdom and Gloneſs, which (under the Divine Bleſſing) have produced a Series of Succeſſes, not known in former times, to rejoyce the Hearts of all Your good Subjects, and to ſecure the Liberties of Europe: Be pleaſed to ſuffer us (amongſt many others) to make our humble Acknowledgment thereof at Your Royal Feet, and to Congratulate the Unparallel'd Victory lately obtained by Your Majeſty's Captain General, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; and to aſſure Your Majeſty, That on all Occaſions, to the utmoſt of our Power, we will zealouſly endeavour to maintain the Character of being Your Majeſty's Faithful and Dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs was likewiſe preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and others the Inhabitants of the Town of Folkſtone in the County of Kent.

MAY it pleaſe Your Majeſty to permit us, Your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, in moſt humble manner to Congratulate Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, not only upon the Glorious and Unparallel'd Victory lately obtained by the Armies of Your Majeſty and Your Allies, under the Command of (the greateſt of Generals) his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, but alſo on the double Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Royal Navy, firſt againſt Gibraltar, and now againſt the Fleet of the Common Enemy.

The Bravery and Wiſdom of Your Majeſty's Chief Commanders both by Land and Sea moſt conſpicuous contributed to theſe great Victories; But we muſt recognize that they are chiefly owing to Your Majeſty's unexemplary Piety and Boundleſs Charity, which engaged the King of Kings thus to fight Your Battels.

May He in His due time enlarge Your Majeſty's Victories over all Your Enemies, and make Your Majeſty's Life a laſting Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms.

The following Addreſs has alſo been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the City of London.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

HAving offer'd our Solemn Praiſes to Almighty God on the Day appointed by Your Majeſty's Pious Proclamation; we crave Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Glorious Victories obtained by the Forces under the Command of the Renowned Duke of Marlborough; which certain Bravery, Courage, Conduct and Fidelity, demonſtrate Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Care of Your Kingdoms Happineſs, in the Choice of a Captain-General.

We ſincerely rejoice in the Divine Favour, that hath ſignally rewarded Your Majeſty's firm Adherence to the Proteſtant Religion, Your Chriſtian Moderation, and earneſt Concern for the Union and Welfare of all Your People, by making You the Chief Inſtrument of Preſerving the Reformed Religion and Liberties of Europe; Reſcuing the Diſtreſſed Empire from Imminent Ruine, and Reducing the Exorbitant Power of France.

Permit us to aſſure Your Majeſty, That our Principles oblige us to adhere to Your Royal Title; and that from a juſt Senſe of our Duty and Intereſt, we will fervently pray for Your Majeſty's long Life, attended with ſuch Succeſs to Your Arms and Counſels, as ſhall iſſue in a Safe and Honourable Peace, the Relief of the Oppreſſed Proteſtants Abroad, and the Security of the Proteſtant Succeſſion at Home; together with ſuch Unity and Reformation of Manners among all Your Subjects, as become theſe Eminent Favours of Providence.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Rye was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. Edward Southwell and Robert Fagg Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Freemen, and others the Chief Inhabitants of the Corporation and ancient Town of Rye in the County of Suſſex.

Dread Sovereign!

WHile all Europe ſtands amaz'd at the mighty Progreſs of Your Majeſty's Arms, and does confeſs to have received their Liberties a ſecond time from an Engliſh Queen; we Your moſt Dutiful Subjects do preſume with all Humility to approach Your Throne, and Congratulate the late deciſive Victory at Hochſtet, obtain'd by the Troops of Your Majeſty and Your Allies, under the auſpicious Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough: A Victory that has not only retriev'd but greatly advanc'd the Honour of the Engliſh Nation, beyond what it was in the Reign of Your moſt Illuſtrious Predeceſſors.

At the ſame time that Your Armies were acting Wonders in the Heart of the German Empire, God Almighty has been pleaſed to give a Glorious Advantage to Your Royal Fleet on the Coaſt of Spain. The Bravery of Your Officers and Seamen, directed by the Prudence, and inſpir'd by the Intrepidity, of Your Admiral, Sir George Rooke, has ſenſibly convinc'd Your Enemies, that even ſuperior Numbers are not ſufficient to diſpute Your Majeſty's Dominion at Sea.

May all Your Majeſty's Councils continue to be bleſs'd with Wiſdom, and all Your Enterprizes with Succeſs: May You long remain the Support of Your Allies, the Bleſſing of Your Subjects, and the Terror of Your Enemies: May Conqueſt ever attend upon Your Arms, and Peace and Liberty upon Your Conqueſt: And may all that live under the Benignity of Your Government acknowledge their Happineſs with the utmoſt Demonſtrations of Union and Loyalty. Such are the fervent Prayers of Your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Windſor, Octob. 1. The following Addreſs from the City of Dublin, was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Addreſs Your Majeſty in a moſt hearty Congratulation for the late Glorious Victory obtained by Your Majeſty's Arms and Your Allies, under the Wiſe Conduct of that Great Captain his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

By this remarkable Succeſs it appears to the World, That Providence has deſigned Your Majeſty's Arms for the moſt Glorious Ends; to be the great Support of the Alliance, the Terrour of France, and the Reſtorers of Peace to Europe.

We of this City, who have not long ſince groaned under the Inſults of a French Uſurpation, cannot but be Tranſported with Joy, to find the Ambition of that Monarch ſo effectually Curb'd by the Invincible Power of Your Majeſty's Arms.

May Heaven proſper Your great and juſt Deſign of Reducing the Exorbitant Power of France; May Victory ſtill wait on Your Majeſty's Arms; May You long Live the Great Arbitrator of the Weſtern World, the Dread of Your Enemies, and the Glory and Happineſs of Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects; And may Your Memory be late Tranſmitted, with the diſtinguiſhing Character of the Reſtorer of the Liberties of Europe, to all Poſterity.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty, on that never to be forgotten glorious Succeſs of Your Arms, and thoſe of Your Allies, under the Wiſe Conduct and True Courage of that Noble and Heroick General, John Duke of Marlborough, whereby the Common Enemy and Oppreſſor has received the greateſt Check he ever met with; GOD Almighty having reſerved the Puniſhment of that perfidious Diſturber of Chriſtendom to Your Majeſty, as an Eminent Reward of that Piety and Juſtice ſo conſpicuous in all Your Actions.

May the ſame Divine Hand of Providence ſtill Watch over Your Royal Perſon and Government, and continue You a laſting Preſerver of the Liberties of Europe, the Support of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Joy and Delight of Your People. Given under our Hands and Seal, at our Guild-hall, the Two and Twentieth day of September, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, 1704.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Tintagell alias Boſſiny in the County of Cornwall.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate the Glorious and Compleat Victory obtained by Your Majeſty's Army and the Allies, under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough, whoſe incomparable Conduct and Intrepid Valour, by the Bleſſing of God, have Reſcued the Empire from immediate Ruine, Preſerved many Princes and Countries from Deſtruction, beſides other wonderful Advantages to the Common-Cauſe, and unqueſtionably Retrieved the Antient Honour of England; whoſe Rewards from Heaven of Your Majeſty's tranſcendent Piety.

The Bleſſed Influences of Your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign have revived the Drooping Spirits of Your People, the Martial Genius of England ſhines again in its former Luſtre, bringing Comfort and Relief to Your Remoteſt Diſtreſſed Friends; and in all Places ſtriking Terrour in Your Enemies, who no more will find their Account with England from a lingering Unactive War.

For, as in the Days of Your moſt Renowned and Warlike Anceſtors, Your Armies (Madam) reap Lawrells at vaſt Diſtances upon the Continent, while Your Royal Fleet Commands the Ocean, and the whole Navy Power of France dares not Diſpute Your juſt Dominion, but flies before Your Admiral on their own Coaſts, tho' ſo very far from Yours.

We pray to Almighty God for Your Majeſty's long and happy Reign over us; and that Your Royal Hands may be ſtrengthened daily againſt all Your Enemies; That the Church of England by Law Eſtabliſhed (that conſtant Object of Your Princely Care and Bounty, which is illuſtrated by Your unexampled Charity to Your poorer Clergy) may be for ever protected and made ſafe againſt all her reſtleſs but cauſeleſs Enemies.

And may theſe proſperous Advances of Your Majeſty's Arms by Land and Sea be attended with ſuch other Glorious Succeſſes, as will oblige the grand Diſturber of Chriſtendom to a Peace, that Your Majeſty ſhall judge to be honourable and ſafe. For we are certain ſuch a Peace will vindicate the Honour of Your Royal Authority, ſecure the Liberties of Europe, and eſtabliſh and maintain the Rights, Happineſs and Tranquility, of all Your own Dominions, and not need to be explained or rectified at the Expence of a new War.

The following Addreſs of the County of Surrey was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of Surrey, attended by ſeveral Gentlemen of that County.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Surrey.

May it pleaſe Your Moſt Sacred Majeſty,

WE do render unto God our moſt humble and hearty Thanks for having placed Your Moſt Sacred Majeſty on the Throne of Your Anceſtors, and do believe the great Bleſſings continually beſtow'd upon us are chiefly owing to Your great Piety and Care of the Proteſtant Religion.

May the great Example of Your ſo Eminently Pious Life induce all Your Subjects to imitate it as exactly as is poſſible, thereby to draw down the Favour and Protection of God Almighty upon Your Majeſty and Your Kingdoms, and to give Your Majeſty many more ſuch Glorious Victories as now obtained by the Wiſdom and Counſels of Your Majeſty, and the Courage and Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, and Sir George Rooke. Give us therefore Leave, Madam, to Congratulate this unparallel'd Succeſs of Your Arms; and to Glory in being on all Occaſions ready and willing to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſh'd.

WE Your Majeſty's Dutiful Subjects, do with all Joy Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the late good Succeſſes of Your Majeſty's Fleet, and the entire Victory and Defeat of Your Majeſty's Enemies, the French and Bavarians, by Your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe and good Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, and the Bravery and Courage of his Grace and the other great Generals and Officers of the Army, which will be a perpetual Honour and Glory to England, and Your Majeſty's Government.

Your Majeſty's ſteddy Zeal to maintain the Religion of the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſhed, and Your great Goodneſs in Eaſe of Your People, when engaged in this War, to part with ſo great a Proportion of Your Majeſty's own Revenue; and Your Princely Piety and Bounty to the poor Clergy of the Church of England, to ſettle for ever ſuch a part of the Income of the Crown; and Your Majeſty's tender Care of their well-being, and their Trade and Commerce; are ſuch unparallel'd Acts of Goodneſs, that Bleſſings attend Your Majeſty's Government, which we pray and wiſh may be long and happy and proſperous, and Crown'd with all good Succeſs.

That God would bleſs this Nation, by Granting to Your Majeſty Encreaſe of Honour and Length of Days, muſt for ever be the Morning, the Evening and the conſtant Sacrifice of us Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects; Who have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, this* 20th of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and Four.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Queenborough was preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Crawford and Thomas King Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Steward, Bayliffs, Chamberlain and Burgeſſes; together with the Miniſter, of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Queenborough in Kent.

Moſt Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Joyful, Loyal, and ſincerely Obedient Subjects, with a moſt warm and affectionate Duty and Zeal, humbly crave Leave to Congratulate the late Glorious and Eminent Current of Succeſs, with which the Almighty God (as a juſt Reward of Your remarkable Piety and Service to Him, and tender Care of His Church as by Law Eſtabliſhed) hath bleſs'd Your Majeſty's Arms by Land and Sea, under the wiſe and valiant Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke.

May Propitious Heaven, in all Your Godly and Generous Enterprizes for the publick Good, ever attend Your Majeſty's Arms with ſuch ſignal Succeſſes. All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Rome,

Rome, Sept. 6. N.S. The Emperor's Ambaſſador here has cauſed a Relation to be Printed of the glorious Victory obtained by the Allies at Pleinheim, the News whereof has as much dejected thoſe who are in the French Intereſt, as it has encouraged ſuch as are Well-wiſhers to the Houſe of Auſtria, and to the Common Cauſe. The Pope has lately held ſeveral Congregations to Conſult upon the Means of Accommodating the Differences wherein he finds himſelf at preſent Involved with the Emperor, on account of the Partiality which this Court has upon ſeveral Occaſions ſhewn in favour of the French, particularly when his Imperial Majeſty's Generals were prevailed upon to withdraw their Forces from the Ferrareſe, upon Promiſe from the Pope, That the French ſhould do the like, which was not performed on their part: The Pope has, to give Satisfaction in ſome Meaſure to the Imperial Court, recalled Cardinal Aſtalli from the Government of that Province, he being lookt upon to be of the French Faction. There is alſo a Diſpute between this Court and that of Turin, upon the Duke of Savoy's demanding from the Inhabitants of Montafia, Coſtanza, and Citerna, 3 Eccleſiaſtical Fiefs in Piedmont, the ſame Supplies towards carrying on the War as are given him by the other Subjects of that Principality; from which it is pretended here they ſhould be Exempted.

Venice, Sept. 13. They write from Mantua, That the Grand Prior of France, with the Forces under his Command, lies encamped at Cerezana, where he expects a Reinforcement from the French Army in Piedmont, in order to oppoſe the Imperial Troops Commanded by the Count of Leiningen, which are ſaid to be marching towards Alba, in order to return into the Veroneſe. Letters from Conſtantinople of the 4th of the laſt month give an Account, That one of the Turkiſh Baſhaw's on the Confines of Arabia, being removed from his Government for ſeveral Miſdemeanors, has taken up Arms againſt the Grand Signior, and has got together a Body of 14000 Men in Arms; whereupon Orders had been diſpatched from the Ottoman Porte to ſeveral of the Baſhaw's in Natolia, to draw together a Body of Troops to ſuppreſs this Rebellion. Theſe Advices add, That the Captain Baſhaw, with the Turkiſh Fleet under his Command, lay before the Mouth of the Boriſthenes, where the Turks are raiſing two Forts to guard the Entrance into that River, and to hinder the Muſcovites from ſending any Ships into the Black Sea.

Francfort, Septemb. 24. A conſiderable quantity of Ammunition was ſent from hence yeſterday to the Siege of Landau. Thirty eight Pieces of Cannon of thoſe which were taken from the Enemy in the Battel of Pleinheim, have lately been brought hither, which are to be ſent down the Rhine to Holland; 21 of them are marked with the Arms of France. Our Letters from Bavaria ſay, That General Auſſas lay with a Body of Imperial Troops at Newbourg, and expected a Reinforcement of 3 or 4000 Men, in order to form a-new the Blockade of Ingolſtadt; And that a Party of Huſſars had been ſent out from Ratisbonne towards Straubingen, to put ſeveral Villages belonging to the Elector of Bavaria under Military Execution for having neglected to pay their Contributions.

Yarmouth, Sept. 29. On the 26th inſtant came into our Road ſeveral laden Colliers, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ships the Aſſiſtance and Queenborough, which with thoſe that were come in before, make in all about 150 Sail, the greateſt part of them bound for the River Thames. On the 27th Her Majeſty's Ship the Sorlings went off to the Herring Fiſhers, being appointed one of their Convoys. This Morning the Fleet of laden Colliers with their Convoys ſailed out of our Roads to the Southward. Here are now a Dutch Man of War and ſeveral Corn Ships bound for Holland.

Portſmouth, Sept. 28. Sir George Rooke, Admiral of Her Majeſty's Fleet, went from hence this morning for Windſor. Yeſterday Rear-Admiral Dilkes, with ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships, came into our Harbour. Sir Cloudeſly Shovel continues at St. Hellens with the reſt of the Fleet.

Portſmouth, Sept. 30. Rear Admiral Whetſtone ſailed laſt night from Spithead with a Squadron of Her Majeſty's Ships, to Convoy the Tranſport Veſſels that have on Board a Battalion of Her Majeſty's Guards, and divers Merchantmen, bound to Portugal.

Windſor, Sept. 29. Admiral Rooke arrived here this Morning from the Fleet, and waited upon Her Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs, and was received very graciouſly.

London, Sept. 30. Yeſterday the Common-Hall proceeded to the Election of a Lord Mayor; and having returned Sir Thomas Cook and Sir Owen Buckingham to the Court of Aldermen, they unanimouſly made Choice of Sir Thomas Cook to be Lord Mayor for the Year enſuing.

There are Three Mails due from Holland.

By Order of the High Court of Admiralty.

THis is to give Notice, That the Ship Iſabella of Rochelle, and her Lading, conſiſting of French Salt, being Condemn'd as Prize and Perquiſites of Admiralty, and now lying at Portſmouth, will be expos'd to publick Sale by the Candle, at Lloyd's Coffee-houſe in Lombard-ſtreet, at two of the Clock, on Monday the 9th of this inſtant October. Inventories of the ſaid Ship and Lading to be ſeen at Mr. Clutterbuck's, Agent for the Lord High-Admiral at Portſmouth, and at the Place of Sale.

Advertiſements.
